Last Week's Run Report

Run 679 – Location – SHELLEY BRIDGE.

STEAMBOATS ON THE RIVER

On a beautiful, warm and clear evening we gathered for what was going to be a great run to celebrate the Chinese New Year ! Our Hare, Rusty-san had chosen a really fantastic spot by the river.

Once we were ushered into the circle, instructions were given on 3 levels. Runners.....sod off,.....walkers....go after them cos you'll keep up anyway & slack bastards, those who meander and slow shufflers.....go straight to the drink stop ! So off we departed on a very scenic run, walk and meander.....Great venue.....From the vantage spot at the drinks stop, we were able to instantly see any short-cutters or wayward Hashers and marveled at the view.

Once everyone got back and had further refreshments, GM called the circle and welcomed any visitors and long time no-see's. The general consensus was that the run scored 11+ points ....well done ! On to the RA who quickly charged the Hare for setting such a good run and then charged numerous Hashers for short cutting ( Oh, so obvious....!) and other nonsense..... Despite never having even slightly done a Dummy-Spit, Pink Bits was awarded the famous Dummy-Spit Bloomers and were quite WET.....(Hmm, think it was just sweat but you never know what people get up to on the runs.....Industrial strength washing required...!)

After the charges, there were a few jokers and true story tellers and the circle ended with a rousing rendition of the one Freo Hash song that we know most of the words .....

Then followed a marvelous STEAMBOAT dinner that was a somewhat lengthy process but delicious and thanks Rusty-san and helpers for the time and effort you put into it (as well as the food !)

ON-ON Mystery Scribbler.
