Last Week's Run Report

Run No; 699 Hare; Light My Fire
Location; Cassidy Pavilion Thornlie

Tunnels of Lurve

Oh what a fabulous run this was there was everything

MYSTERY: Are we in the right place ??? (No Ah's Up laundry to mark the spot ! AND no Hare to be seen))

RAIN: Man do we need this rain... (NOT right now but

QUICK START: Off we ran/walked avoiding raindrops !

WELL MARKED TRAIL: No-one got lost

LONG SOCKS; most of us had that covered except the "bright one" doesn't do dress ups

SPECTACULAR DRINK STOP: A complete bar/swimming pool (to match rain and cold) with stunningly interesting splash...

TUNNELS: I mean seriously, we did not know about these subterranean marvels ... there were quite a few and some with great painting/art works (no, not graffiti !)

In the circle, we awarded the Hare, Sheepshunter two lots of 9 points with even maybe a .5 extra The turn out for this run was expected to be low due to distance and weather but we did very well. We had an acting RA (no Oscars will be awarded but she wasn't bad !) There were plenty of charges for visitors, phone calls on trail and usual sins...(NOTE next week we have 7 DEADLY sins so you can all really indulge...)

Sadly the Dummy Spit shorts were forgotten (the Hare had been busy) BUT WATCH THIS SPACE because there will be a winner next week ! You know who you are of course.....

We had a few jokers but as the weather got wetter, we closed the circle with a damp rendition of our song (but with smiling faces as we were rugged up in fabulous new scarves and beanies ... thanks to D-Cell/Haberdash with a difference !!!)

Then Light My Fire arrived with a great warming Thai Green Curry and sweets... Thanks it was delish !

REMEMBER to DRESS UP as a Deadly Sin next week there are PRIZES lots of fun in store and a celebratory dinner too !!!
