Last Week's Run Report

Run No; 711 Hare ; Gaylord Fokker
8a Fletcher St Applecross

The Rainbow Connection !

What a jolly lot of Hashers we were, supporting the LGBTIQ community with many of us wearing rainbow colours !

It was a lovely evening, bit of a chilly wind but nevertheless very pleasant. There was a good turn out and (appropriately) Gaylord was Hare. The run instructions given, the pack set of at the usual cracking pace with stragglers (of course) in the walkers pack !

The trail was well marked, and at the beginning, runners were really trail blazers for the walkers ... till they got the better of us and we had to rely on the front running walkers... never, EVER rely on them !!!

Of course we all found our way to the magnificent drink stop that had twinkling lights, river views, post sunset sky and bubbles ! 10 out of 10 points I reckon

Once everyone returned to the start, (there were a few tardy) we had the circle and as predicted, top points were awarded. The RA came down with a vengeance on some unlucky Hashers who had to endure/enjoy an ice seat gosh it was shared around a lot ! Nearly all melted !

So in closing, the Dummy Spit shorts went to the parking inspector - the jokers and true story tellers did their thing and we finished off with a song and a really good bit of nosh ! Thanks all !

See here for where to go.....For this week's run, that is.
