Committee Hash Nosh

Cookie's FIG Run

Well it would have been a good fig run if we had been able to find them !

This week's Committee run was from a well known watering hole(Moondyne Joes) where we were going to have nosh. A good turnout of Hashers gathered at the start to be given some slightly confusing instructions for runners and walkers. We set off and found trail which was not, lets say, usual. There were sentences written as well as the 6's. Cookie was being kind to help walkers it transpired. Hmmm ...

Despite some trail ambiguity, it was easy to follow and we all got back to the start.

In the circle, the run score was reasonably high for both runners and walkers. However, Cookie was destined to spend a considerable time in the circle all night ! Ice was close ...

Taking her turn, RA had a lot of work to do ... as constant charges were blurted out (often for Cookie ...) and for the latecomers, but never mind that, she had to perform 2 naming ceremonies and an addendum. An RA's work is never done ...

First of all a visitor from Sheffield was named While You're There (you had to be there) and LouisA was named (eventually) Lick-Her-Land which may be an incorrect spelling but the story around it was hilarious !

Then came the regal, royal and sophisticated addendum to Shafty's name for services rendered ... SIR Shaft-Sniffer This was a special moment as he arose with tears in his eyes full of gratitude for being on his knees in front of the RA.

Two Hashers, who should get a life, were duly awarded a 200 badge for Dirty Deeds and a 350 one went to GPS (This IS his life and he ain't disappointed)

As the night got progressively colder, there was just enough time for a few jokers and true story tellers before the Hash song to end the night and a dash to the pub for grub !

It was a great Freo Hash night as usual
